MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held during the month of November each year at a date and time to be fixed by the Board of Directors.

3.2. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such times and places as may from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

3.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any Director. 3.7. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the entire Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and, in the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present may, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. The President shall have the power to call meetings of the Board of Directors and shall preside at all meetings of the Corporation. The President shall also have the power to execute, deliver, acknowledge, file and record on behalf of the Corporation such documents as may be required by the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act or other applicable law, and shall have such other duties and powers as may be prescribed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The President shall supervise the activities of the Corporation and shall see that all policies and instructions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President may negotiate for, execute and deliver (or cause to be negotiated, executed or delivered) contracts, deeds and other instruments and agreements on behalf of the Corporation as are necessary or appropriate in the ordinary course of its business or as are duly authorized or approved by the Board of Directors or committees designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys paid to the Corporation and, subject to any limits imposed by the Board of Directors or the President, shall have authority to give receipts and vouchers, to sign and endorse checks and warrants in the Corporation's name and on the Corporation's behalf, and give full discharge for the same. The Treasurer shall also have charge of disbursement of the funds of the Corporation, shall keep full and accurate records of the receipts and disbursements and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name of and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall make the books of account available to the Board of County Commissioners of El Paso County, Colorado, for inspection upon request. The Treasurer shall have such additional authority, powers and duties as are appropriate and customary for the office of Treasurer and as the Board of Directors may prescribe from time to time.

4.6. Resignation, Removal and Vacancies. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified in the notice. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective unless the notice so provides. Any officer may be removed, with or without cause, by action of the Board of Directors. The removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed. A vacancy occurring in any office shall be filled by the Board of Directors from among its membership for the unexpired portion of that officer's term.

4.7. Compensation. The officers of the Corporation shall serve as such without compensation; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may allow reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred by an officer in the performance of his or her duties as an officer.

4.8. Agents and Employees. The Board of Directors may appoint or employ such agents or other employees as it may deem advisable from time to time, and may delegate to any officer of the Corporation the power to appoint and prescribe the authority and duties of any such agents or employees. Appointment or employment of an agent or employee shall not of itself create a contract or other right to compensation for services performed as such agent or employee.

ARTICLE V

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

5.1. To the fullest extent permitted or provided by the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act, as amended from time to time, the Corporation shall indemnify any person against all actual liability and expense incurred by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or officer of the Corporation. In addition to the foregoing obligation of indemnification, and with a view to giving the person covered by these provisions the broadest possible indemnity, the Corporation shall also indemnify persons as provided in the succeeding paragraphs of this Article V.

5.2. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by the Corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or officer of the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she believed in good faith to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had, in good faith, no cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful, but no such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Corporation unless, and then only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which such court deems proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she believed in good faith to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had, in good faith, no cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

5.3. To the extent that a person entitled to indemnification under Section 5.2 has been successful on the merits in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in that section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

5.4. Any indemnification under Section 5.2 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the person seeking indemnification is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in that section. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or, if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

5.5. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may, at the option of the Directors acting as provided in Section 5.4, be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person seeking the advance to repay such amount unless it is ultimately determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article V.

5.6. The indemnification provided by this Article V shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under the Articles of Incorporation, any Bylaw, agreement, vote of disinterested Directors or otherwise, and any procedure provided for by any of the foregoing, as to action in his or her official capacity and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be in the position which entitled him or her to such indemnification and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The provisions in this Article V shall not be deemed to preclude the Corporation from indemnifying other persons from similar or other expenses and liabilities as the Board of Directors may determine in a specific instance or by resolution of general application.

5.7. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article V.

ARTICLE VI

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

No contract or transaction entered into by the Corporation shall be rendered invalid by the fact that a Director or officer of the Corporation is personally interested in it or may have interests which are or might be adverse to the interests of the Corporation if:

(a) at the meeting of the Board of Directors making, authorizing or confirming such contract or transaction the interested Director or officer discloses (or causes to be disclosed) his or her interest in such contract or transaction, refrains from affirmatively asserting his or her influence in speaking or voting for the adoption of such contract or transaction, and such contract or transaction is adopted or ratified by a majority of all of the Directors who are not so interested after first determining in good faith that: (i) such contract or transaction is in the best interests of the Corporation notwithstanding the adverse or potentially adverse interests of the interested Director or officer, and (ii) that such contract or transaction was not entered into solely because of the position of such interested Director or officer with the Corporation. In making such determination, the Directors may rely to the extent they deem appropriate upon the advice of legal counsel; or

(b) such contract is fair and reasonable to, and in the best interests of, the Corporation.

CONTRACTS AND CHECKS

7.1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or agent of the Corporation to enter into any particular contract or execute and deliver any particular instrument in the name of the Corporation if no such authority is provided for the officer or agent elsewhere in these Bylaws. Without such authorization, no such officer or agent shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable pecuniarily for any amount.

7.2. Funds. All funds of the Corporation shall be deposited to the credit of the Corporation under such conditions and in such depositories as the Board of Directors may designate, and for the purpose of such deposit any person or persons to whom such power is delegated may endorse, assign and deposit checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of funds payable to the order of the Corporation. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money issued by the Corporation shall be signed by such person or person as may, from time to time, be designated by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws.
